REPORT OF THE CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.

The Corresponding Secretary respectfully reports that during the past year, commencing December 1, 1895, there have been received from eighty-seven societies, museums, libraries, etc., one hundred and eighty-two acknowledgements of the receipt of the publications of the Academy; and from forty-five societies, libraries, etc., fifty-seven notices that their publications have been forwarded to the Academy, together with eighteen applications to exchange publications for Reports, Proceedings, etc., and asking for missing numbers of the publications of the Academy.

Twenty-five letters on various subjects have been received, and twenty-six written. Twenty-one circulars and invitations extended to the Academy to participate in Congresses or meetings, and announcements of the deaths of scientific men have been received and, when necessary, acknowledged.

During the year two correspondents have been elected and notified.

The deaths of the following correspondents have been reported:—

M. S. Bebb, of Rockford, Illinois, elected in 1881, died December 5, 1895.

Don Antonio del Castillo, of Mexico, elected 1874, died October 27, 1895.

Prof. Gabriel Auguste Daubrée, of Paris, France, elected 1884, died May 29, 1896.

George Edward Dobson, of London, England, elected 1884, died November 26, 1895.

Prof. Alexander Henry Green, of Oxford, England, elected 1877, died August 19, 1896.

Dr. Juan Gundlach, of Havana, Cuba, elected 1867, died March, 1896.

Sir Ferdinand von Mueller, of Melbourne, Victoria, elected 1876, died October 9, 1896.

Auguste Sallé, of Paris, France, elected 1888, died May 5, 1896.

Charles Wachsmuth, of Burlington, Iowa, elected 1886, died February 7, 1896.

Prof. Josiah Dwight Whitney, of Boston, Mass., elected 1852, died August 19, 1896.

Seven hundred and fifty-eight acknowledgements for gifts to the library and eighty-three for gifts to the museum have been forwarded.

Respectfully submitted,

BENJ. SHARP,
Corresponding Secretary.
